We Teach and Believe

- That the Bible is God's inerrant, infallible Word, and is the foremost and final authority for all of faith and life.
- That there is one God, revealed in three persons: the Father, the Son (Jesus Christ), and the Holy Spirit.
- That full payment has been made for all sins through Jesus' sacrificial death, and that God's forgiveness and eternal life are received by simple faith apart from human works.
- That joy, peace and satisfaction that is true and lasting is found only in a living relationship with Christ as one's Lord.
- That the congregation has no other authority over it but the Word of God to obey.
- That those who truly trust in Jesus are called to daily live in love and honor of God and man.
